POPPY MIRRORS & WALL DECOR

Poppy mirror is a graphical representation of a playful Poppy flower. The mirror frame has been crafted in brass sheet, inspired by the sawing form of the poppy petals in the wind. The frame has been accentuated with a beautiful beaten texture and an array of hand-cut motifs. This piece is available in various metal finishes such as matt gold, rose gold, antiques and patina. These mirrors come in 5 different sizes and can be used for display as individual mirrors or an artistic wall installation. The mirrors can be further complimented with beautifully handcrafted poppy flower shaped rosettes, made in brass sheet. The texture of this 3 dimensional flower is very life like, made by master craftsmen, using jewellery making techniques such as "Chaising and Repousse".

KALPATARU WALL ART & MIRRORS

This wall installation is inspired by the "Kalpataru" a wish-fulfilling divine tree in Indian mythology.

This piece celebrates the concept of nature and culture, brought to life by the exquisite skills and craftsmanship of traditional silversmiths and filigree master artisans.

The outer frame is inspired by the shape of a "Tulsi" leaf (Holy Basil Leaf), encompassing the elaborate foliage of chased floral motifs and ivy patterns, crafted in antique brass, brushed copper and green patina. On a closer look, one can discover deeper cultural nuances, for example the concept of "Shubh Labh" (Auspiciousness & Prosperity), depicted by holy symbols (like the lotus) representing the Devine Trinity of "Ganesh" (God of Fortune), "Lakshmi" (Goddess of Wealth) & "Saraswati" (Goddess of Knowledge).

The piece also has the provision to accommodate cove lights, making it a functional wall covering.

BIRDS on the GRENADA

This artwork captures the story of exotic birds enjoying the abundance of a pomegranate tree. This piece is a homage to simpler times, clear skies, abundance of nature and freedom.

This backlit intricate cutwork piece can be wall mounted as a decorative facade or can be modified as a free standing accent piece space divider. The birds and the fruits of the tree have been crafted in brass using chasing and repousse techniques.

This piece can also be installed outdoors.

Tulsi Mirror

Tulsi mirror draws its inspiration from the Tulsi Plant (Holy basil), the drop shapes are representative of the Tulsi leaves, and the circular forms are representing the seeds of the Tulsi Plants, both having spiritual significance in Indian culture. The unique and bold look of the table makes this piece a conversation starter.

ABUNDANCE COLLECTION

A nature inspired collection of table top accessories such as centre pieces, trivets, platters and T lights, completely handcrafted and hand cut by traditional artisans from the north of India.

It has been our effort to reinterpret the age old Sanjhi stencils of leaves, plants and flowers as cutwork on a brass base objects that are both decorative and functional in Gulmohar and Mango platter.

They are plated in Silver, and can be ordered in Brass or Copper finish too. The Artisans have hand cut each piece using the traditional filigree technique. Cutout filigree is a highly skilled technique of creating intricate designs by cutting out patterns from a metal sheet.

This hand crafted process hasn't lost its relevance even today as it can be applied to cutout patterns onto spherical or curved surfaces unlike a lazer cutting machine.

Daisy & Hibiscus flower T light are crafted with repoussé, direct contact of the tools used is visible in the result while evidence of the working method is eliminated in other metal craft techniques.

Katran Painting: Limited Edition

As children we often craved for the window seat in an aircraft. The thrill was to look out at the mesmerising views of the ocean, fields, forests and clouds pass by. Over several years, these views have been slowly changing into urbanised, polluted or decaying landscapes. The idea here is to capture these views so as to not lose them to time and make people aware of how our planet is changing from what it used to be, and urge a desire within the viewer to protect it. Six different areas were worked upon. These views were broken down into basic lines. The lines repeat, overlap and twist around harmoniously to expose the simplistic beauty of these landscapes and sights.

UNIQUENESS

Since these pieces are made entirely by hand, none of them come out exactly alike. The same combination of the colours and the exact same lines can never be exactly recreated, nor can the same flow of lines. The colours are dependent on the textile wastes that come from the industry and hence will not always match up to the same shade.
